

Welcome Back to the Castle, New & Returning Tigers!

The Stadium Boosters Executive Board has been busy at work this summer in preparation for the school year. We have some exciting upcoming community events, numerous sporting activities, and let's not forget the Fall and Spring Musicals. There is so much happening here at Stadium, and the Boosters are here to be sure you don't miss a beat! Gooooo Tigers!

We have a new look! Our Boosters website has had a makeover. Check us out at www.stadiumboosters.org. Boosters President Melissa Smith worked closely with a non-profit web developer to put together our fresh new site. Don't forget to check out our Stadium swag while you're there.

Everyone is welcome to join us at our Booster Meetings, typically on the 2nd Monday of each month at 6pm in the Stadium Library (enter library from behind the castle, the double doors into the building off of the parking lot). Attending via Zoom is always an option too. Links are posted monthly on our website. The next Boosters meeting is Monday, October 10th. Here is our upcoming Zoom meeting info:

There's No Place Like Home, a Homecoming to Remember

Stadium Tigers of all ages celebrated Stadium Homecoming at the Pep Assembly, Football Game, and the "Wizard of Oz" Homecoming Dance. Stadium Boosters handed out pom poms to fans of all generations at the Friday night game and nearly 1,000 bottles of water to thirsty dancers at HOCO.

Booster Member Highlight

La'Crecia Hill Stadium Parent, Booster Member, and owner of Hill and Valley Bookkeeping

La'Crecia was instrumental in helping Joan Waldrop, Boosters Treasurer, migrate our Booster finances in QuickBooks from our old system to a new cloud-based version. Thank you so much La'Crecia! We are grateful for your talent and generosity! Check out Hill and Valley Bookkeeping at:

Thank you!

La'Crecia currently has a son in his senior year and a daughter who is a sophomore at Stadium. Her eldest daughter was a Stadium varsity cheerleader for 4 years and graduated in 2019. La'Crecia enjoys watching the occasional volleyball game and the musicals.

We've got spirit, yes we do...

In a fashion slump? Needing a pick me up as the days get shorter? Join many of your fellow Tigers and sport some of our great Stadium merch! We sell online with a North Tacoma porch pick up and will have pop ups at some home games and events at the castle. We have lots of new designs, check them out!

Tiger Spotlight

Stadium Senior, Sean was recently featured as a guest speaker at the Hilltop Artists 'Better Futures' Luncheon held at the Hotel Murano on October 2nd. Sean has been a part of Hilltop Artists since 2018 with a specialty in glassblowing. He is a Team Production member, squeezing in hot shop time between his job and busy school schedule.

In May 2022, Sean was one of ten African American students from Hilltop Artists to join Better Together, a Black artists' collective, at Pilchuck for a residency. Sean also received a Crafting the Future scholarship to attend the Appalachian Center for Crafts this past summer.

'These are my CONCESSSSSIONS....'

Usher says

After a nearly 3 year hiatus, concessions have returned to Stadium games! Thank you to Boosters Secretary, Kristin Hall for managing this endeavor and for our tireless Mini Boosters and Executive Board for supporting the sale of concessions, so that we can enjoy snacks and drinks at SHS events. If your club or team wants to earn money, please contact: kristin@stadiumboosters.org to see how you might get on the list to volunteer to sell at a game or event.
